Wirtz Gets Labor Post

WASHINGTON (UPI)—W. Willard Wirtz, 50, a tall, crewcut New Frontiersman, was selected by President Kennedy today as new secretary of labor.

Wirtz, now undersecretary of labor, will be nominated to succeed Arthur J. Goldberg, Kennedy Wednesday announced Goldberg's selection as an associate Supreme Court justice.

The selection of Wirtz was announced by Kennedy in the White House Conference Room before a crowd of reporters and photographers. The President expressed confidence that Wirtz would carry on in the "fine tradition" set by Goldberg.

Wirtz, former Chicago law associate of Adlai E. Stevenson, has been Goldberg's right-hand man during Goldberg's 19 months in the cabinet.

Goldberg will succeed Felix Frankfurter, who is retiring from the nation's highest tribunal because of ill health.

Wirtz was in Chicago when the White House announced his appointment.

Business Is Going To the Dogs

A Palm Springs area business went to the dogs today.

Escrow was opened at 10:40 a.m. in the Palm Springs office of Pearson-Scott Mortgage Co., for the $100,000 - plus sale of the former San Luis Rey Market in California Dream Homes.

The new owner is "Cricket," a pint-sized schnauzer.

John Foster Veltmann, "Cricket's" master and reported seller of the store, said it was all legal, according to his attorney, Frank Elijah Roy. Veltmann added that the store was bankrupt.

The escrow, opened with a $300 check, duly paved by "Cricket," is set for six months. Stipulated sale price is $100,000, plus an estimated $15,000 fixtures and inventory.

The new canine-headed enterprise was slated to be known as the Cricket Family Store, but the organization was switched some when the Veltmann family partnership split, Veltmann confided.

"Cricket" made no comment during the transaction.

DOGGONE good business was scored today by "Cricket," a canine best friend who entered escrow at the Palm Springs office of Pearson-Scott Mortgage Co., to buy the former San Luis Rey Market. "Cricket" inked a $500 check to open the six-months escrow for a reported $100,000 plus inventory, from seller John Foster Veltmann. Mrs. Elsinore Garland, escrow officer, checks the paper work. (Desert Sun Photo)

NEWS in BRIEF

ALGIERS, Algeria (UPI)—Army forces backing leftist Vice Premier Ahmed Ben Bella marched on Algiers today. The anti-Ben Bella command in the city vowed to defend its positions at all costs.

The grim threat of new bloodshed and possible civil war came after Ben Bella appealed to the Algerian National Liberation Army (ALN) to enter Algiers, restore order and reassert his Political Bureau's authority over rebellious guerrilla forces there.

ISTANBUL, Turkey (UPI) — Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson concludes a four-day visit to Turkey and flies off to newly independent Cyprus today for talks with leaders.

On behalf of President Kennedy, Johnson was expected to try to further convince Archbishop Makarios, president of Cyprus, of the need for economic development projects to get the nation moving forward.

MOSCOW (UPI) — Acting United Nations Secretary General Thant said today he believed Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev would favor a meeting with President Kennedy "if the occasion demands."

Thant said that during his four hours of conversation with Khrushchev last Tuesday, "I expressed my belief that such a meeting could be useful."

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Supreme Court Justice designate Arthur J. Goldberg declared recently he would not accept any gifts more expensive than a 20-pound birthday cake.

Goldberg described his interpretation of ethical conduct for government officials in a speech to the convention of the American Bakery & Confectionery Workers AFL-CIO.

Containment of L.A. Fires Seen

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Two thousand fire fighters made steady progress today in their battle to contain two giant brush fires which have charred more than 17,000 acres of valuable watershed since Tuesday afternoon.

A county fire department spokesman reported all fire lines in the Castaic and Newhall blazes, 40 miles north of downtown Los Angeles, were held during the night and the situation was "somewhat improved."

The Newhall fire was 90 per cent contained, according to Fire Chief Keith Klinger, and the Castaic blaze was 60 per cent contained. Complete containment was forecast for this evening.

The two blazes caused approximately $1.7 million damage, destroying 54 buildings including movie sets on cowboy singer Gene Autry's Melody Ranch, three buildings at the Olive View Sanatorium, and numerous ranch structures.

Helicopters flew over the fire area to search out hot spots and direct ground crews. Two borate bombers were standing by for service if needed. Eleven bombers were used in early stages of the fight.

Firemen were faced with the rugged task of encircling about 35 miles of fire line. Much of the exposed areas were in rugged terrain where extremely difficult fire fighting conditions prevailed.

Fire officials said early today that the raging fire front of the past two days had subsided but a long ragged fire edge still remained "and any portion without a line is a threat."

Klinger said danger to structures and populated areas had diminished but noted that weather conditions provided the key to complete containment.

Lower temperatures were forecast for all fronts of the fire, and winds were expected out of the southwest.

A shift in the wind late Wednesday halted the onrushing fires. Winds had been driving the blazes southeasterly toward the fringe of several San Fernando Valley communities, but a sudden shift blew the smoke and flame back into burned out areas, allowing firemen to check the fire front.

Pay Raise For Officials Debate Here

Palm Springs' city fathers today are debating whether or not their top four administrators — city manager, city attorney, finance director and city clerk — should have a boost in pay. And if so how much?

These officials were left out of the picture Monday when the council voted a new pay plan that hikes the municipal payroll by more than $80,000 a year.

A comparison with similar sized cities in California does not provide a good guide. Salary schedules in Palm Springs at present stand at $1,250 per month for city manager; $1,000 for the attorney; $928 for finance director and $600 for city clerk.

In other cities, for example the manager's job carries a salary ranging from $978 to $1,925 — attorney's monthly fees run from $462 to $1,508 — similar disparity exists for the other department heads.

But our councilmen must come up with some ideas before a lunch meeting Tuesday, Sept. 11, when they are scheduled to settle the situation at an informal luncheon meeting.

Goldberg Fails In Effort to Halt Walkout

CHICAGO (UPI) — The nation's biggest rail strike in 16 years shut down the 10,565-mile Chicago and North Western Railway today and there was little hope of an early settlement.

The iron wheels on the North Western's nine-state Midwest network stopped rolling as last-ditch efforts by Labor Secretary Arthur J. Goldberg failed to head off the walkout of 1,000 telegraphers at 5 a.m. PDT.

Another 16,500 North Western employees refused to cross picket lines and the railroad went through with plans to cease operations. Talks were scheduled to resume today but National Mediator Francis O'Neill, who took over the negotiations after Goldberg gave up, said the railroad striking AFL-CIO Order of Railroad Telegraphers (ORT) were still far apart on the basic issue of job security.

Threatens Hardships
The strike cut off transportation to one-third of Chicago's army of suburban railroad commuters and threatened economic hardship across the Midwest and the Great Plains.

The walkout came when the nation's 180 railroads were threatened with a nationwide rail strike over the thorny issue of featherbedding.

Five operating rail brotherhoods representing 210,000 employees have threatened to call such a strike if the railroads go through with plans to put sweeping work rules changes into effect. The work rules are designed to eliminate featherbedding—the railroads terms for unneeded workers and work procedures. If the rules go into effect, they will result in the elimination of at least 65,000 jobs on the railroads.

The national strike threat is currently stalled in the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals at Chicago, which is scheduled to hear arguments this fall on the unions' appeal for an injunction against the new work rules.

The term featherbedding has not been used with any frequency in the North Western negotiations. But the issues are similar.

Wind-Felled Tree Blocks Avenue

Sporadic wind gusts and a brittle cottonwood tree equalled a brief roadblock on North Indian Avenue late Wednesday.

Quake Hits Mountain States

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI)—An earthquake rolled through the intermountain area today, knocking down bricks, dishes and plaster from buildings in three states, but no injuries were reported.

The tremor was recorded at a magnitude of 6.1 on seismographs at Caltech Seismological Laboratory at Pasadena, Calif., and University of California at Berkeley.

Heaviest damage of the quake in Utah, Wyoming and Idaho was reported in the Cache Valley of Northern Utah. Power was out in the valley, including Logan, fourth largest city in the state. A school was closed at Richmond, near Logan, when plaster fell.

A slide was reported on Highway 89 through Logan Canyon, between Logan and Montpelier, Idaho. Most of the bracks on the roof of a meeting house of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints at Logan fell inside the building.

The earth tremor, first of any consequence in Utah since Aug. 17, 1959, when Utahns felt a quake centered near Hebgen Lake in Montana, brought hundreds of calls from homeowners. Some in Salt Lake City said their beds rolled across the floor.

The shock hit at 6:35 a.m. PDT and lasted about 10 seconds. Buildings shook perceptibly as far south as Vernal, located in the south-east part of Utah.

The tremor had a reading of 6.1 in the Richter scale at the University of California seismograph at Berkeley. The Yellowstone quake of 1959 which took 10 lives and left 19 missing had a reading of between 7.5 and 8 and the San Francisco earthquake at the turn of the century had a reading of 8.25.

IKE BOOSTS NATO

Eisenhowers Back from Europe

NEW YORK (UPI) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, looking relaxed after a six-week tour of Europe, today condemned criticism of NATO's unity and urged caution in using the term "space gap."

The general said he found NATO to be strong as ever, even though its critics have said there are evidences of a rift in its unity.

"It's in much better shape than its critics say," he said. He likened the space race to a track meet in which the individual events are not necessarily all won by the same team. Eisenhower implied that it was the outcome of the whole meet which counted.

In a news conference aboard the liner America, the former chief executive said the progress of European nations since the war had been "outstanding." He said, "there has been tremendous progress in Europe. There is a spirit of progress and evidence of growth. The people are not particularly worried."

Eisenhower said he talked with both military and government leaders in NATO and found their morale "very high." He said he did not believe that French President Charles de Gaulle was a deterrent factor in NATO's unity. "De Gaulle is one of the most effective men in modern times," Eisenhower said. "But it's very difficult to change his mind. It's not going to be easy to get along with him."

Eisenhower returned from the six-country tour with his wife, Mamie, and grandchildren, David, 14, and Barbara Ann, 13. One of the highlights of the tour was an address he delivered before an International Teachers Conference at Stockholm, July 31 in his capacity as head of the International People - to - People Program.

New York Stocks at Closing

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks were steady all day today.

Near the close not a single issue on the board was showing a change of as much as 2 points. Steel shares were generally weak in the wake of Wheeling's dividend slash. That issue as well as U.S. Steel, National, Jones & Laughlin and Armco fell at least a point.

Most motors managed to sneak ahead fractions while international oils and leading chemicals were steady. Glamour growth stocks began to ease near the close, IBM, Beckman and a few others showing moderate losses. Rails were narrowly mixed and utilities firm.

Combs Leads Soaring Club Into Flight

The Palm Springs Soaring Association came alive last night as articles of incorporation were adopted and officers of the sport flying club were elected.

Leonard Combs, who has spearheaded formation of the group, was named president. Elected to serve with Combs were Bill Wilson, vice president; Howard Burger, secretary; and, as directors, Eleanor Wagner, Cliff Christopher and Dan Jones.

Activation of the club as a non-profit organization climaxed months of effort by Combs and other residents who like "powerless flight."

It also came on the evening of the first day of a two-day demonstration program at Palm Springs Airport arranged by Combs and featuring glider rides for potential club members.

Soaring yesterday included passengers such as Zaddie Bunker, Palm Springs famed "flying grandmother," who was celebrating her 75th birthday anniversary, as well as newspaper and radio reporters.

Soaring proponents claim theirs is a manner of flight most near that of the birds. Opponents say it's strictly for the birds.

Physician Mutilates Model Wife

SAN JOSE, Calif. (UPI)—The blonde wife of a Hungarian doctor was still in critical condition today at Santa Clara County hospital, suffering from knife wounds and acid burns which her husband admitted inflicting on her.

A hospital spokesman said Mrs. Hajna de Kaplany, 25, suffered third degree acid burns over 60 per cent of her body and was injured internally. She had also been beaten and slashed with surgical instruments.

The husband, Dr. Geza de Kaplany, was held by San Jose police on a charge of attempted murder. Police said formal charges were held up pending the outcome of Mrs. De Kaplany's struggle for life.

De Kaplany, 38, told police he tied the hands and feet of his beautiful bride of five weeks and threw acid over her nude body, after beating and slashing her.

"I did it to frighten her," police quoted him as saying, "to put fear into her for beating an adulteress. She's not going to die. I just wanted to take her beauty away."

"I know for a fact that she has been unfaithful," he added. From her hospital bed, Mrs. De Kaplany, a former showgirl and fashion model, denied that she had been unfaithful.

Both Dr. De Kaplany and his wife were Hungarian refugees who came to this country after the revolution of 1956.

Filing Deadline for DHS Post Sept. 13

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Two vacancies on the Desert Hot Springs Park and Recreation District board are scheduled to be filled in the Nov. 6 general election. Final date for filing for election has been set at Sept. 13, with papers to be at the Riverside County Clerk's office by date.

Announcement of the vacancies, which will be effective next Jan. 1, was made by Herb A. Ecclestone, chairman of the local board.

Candidates must be qualified registered voters residing within the territory comprising the park district, he said. In order for the petition to be valid it must be signed by 25 qualified registered voters also living within the park district.

Petitions will be available at a meeting of the Park and Recreation District to be held on Sept. 4, at 7:30 p.m. at the Eighth Street Community Center, or by writing the board at P.O. Box 245.

Members of the five-man board whose terms are expiring are Mrs. Marguerite Burmesch and Herbert Seales. Other members are Herb A. Ecclestone, John Kean and Charles E. Edmonds.

If only one file for each vacancy the candidates are appointed by the Riverside County Board or Supervisors. Should more than one candidate file, an election will be held to fill the vacancies in connection with the general election on Nov. 6.

All park board directors serve without pay.

Four Desert Boards Have Appointment

RIVERSIDE — Appointments for four desert districts were made by the board of supervisors as suggested by boards of the districts. Elections to fill the vacancies are unnecessary because there was no more than one nominee for each position.

Appointed to four-year terms as directors of the Mecca Sanitary District were A. G. Escobar and Harold F. Haskell. Maude Morgan was named district assessor for the next two years.

Three directors named for four-year terms on the Cathedral City Sanitation District board are Malcolm K. Gordon, Bert W. Wade, and Ed W. Donahue.

Ralph H. Hunter and Carl C. Preston were appointed directors for the Coachella Sanitary District.

Movie Entrepreneur Writes Puerto Rico Success Story

By JESSE BOGUE
UPI Financial Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)— Not too many new 1,400-seat motion picture houses are planned for cities in the United States these days, but one is being contemplated for San Juan.

Few proprietors have spent up to $300,000 refurbishing a downtown theater recently in these parts, but that also has taken place in San Juan.

The man who heads the organization doing this sort of thing is Rafael Ramos Cobian, San Juan, P.R., who started operating a single theater in the small town of Coamo 37 years ago. He took it over to help boost sales of a drug store which he operated on the strength of his early training as a pharmacist.

Since that time he and his former competitor and present chairman of the board of directors, Victor Carrady, 42-year-old financier, have welded a chain of 42 theaters into a corporation, the Commonwealth Theatres of Puerto Rico.

"People in Puerto Rico like movies," Cobian said on a recent trip here.

"They like our theaters, too," he said with a smile. Later he commented proudly that despite the name "Commonwealth" most of the movie houses which he operates still are known to the public as Cobian theaters.

Although Puerto Ricans and visitors — the ever-growing stream of tourists — patronize heavily the traditional indoor theaters of the island commonwealth, Cobian has not overlooked the attractions of the outdoor theater. The nation's largest one, a 1,200 car spread, is slated to open this year in the outskirts of San Juan.

The company also has under consideration an 11-floor building to house a 1,400-seat theatre in San Juan.

Court Clerk to Attend Sessions

Over 1,000 members of the Municipal Court Clerks Association will participate in the 10th annual convention of the group in Berkeley starting Sept. 7, according to an announcement from the group.

Attending from Palm Springs will be Ethel Clark, clerk for the Palm Springs and Indio Judicial District, who has an office at 400 N. Belardo Road.

The two-day event will be highlighted by talks from consuls-generals of both Canada and Mexico. Every municipal court in the state and many justice courts will be represented at the meeting.

Mrs. Clark plans to leave the Springs for the sessions Sept. 5. She attended last year's session at the Hotel Disneyland.

LIZ TAYLOR PRAISED

'Cleopatra' Finally Completed

By VERNON SCOTT

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Walter Wanger, the most grandiose spender in movie history (Cleopatra, $30 million), is back in Lotusland and still blowing a fortune on the Liz Taylor extravaganza.

"There remains a great deal of work to be done now that the actual shooting is complete," the producer said during lunch at the 20th Century-Fox Commissary.

He looked exhausted. Wanger spent a year in Rome on the trouble-plagued picture which was completed earlier this month after 11 months before the cameras.

"Bad luck and horrible weather were mainly responsible for all the delays," he said, adding that Miss Taylor's skylarking with co-star Richard Burton scarcely dented the shooting schedule. His praise of the estranged Mrs. Fisher is unstinting.

"Elizabeth gave a Diva's performance. It is worthy of a Duse or Bernhardt. She goes all out emotionally to make 'Cleopatra' the greatest woman's picture of all time.

"I've never seen anything like her acting on the stage or screen in all my years in show business."

Wanger has seen all seven hours of the picture which eventually will be cut four hours with an intermission at the half-way mark.

Up to his neck in celluloid at the studio is director Joe Mankiewicz, who is editing the epic. It will occupy him until next spring when the long-awaited picture will be released.

"Almost all the credit must go to Mankiewicz. He did a tremendous job of directing as well as writing the script," Wanger said. "He's won so many Oscars we won't bother with it this time. We'll present him with a statue of the Sphinx."

Does Wanger feel "Cleopatra" will recoup its high cost?

"They say it will take $50 million for it to break even," he sighed. "But I'm sure it will become the greatest money-maker of all. It has no barriers — such as religion — to hold it back. Many non-Christian countries won't play 'Ben-Hur,' or 'The Ten Commandments.'"

"Exhibitor demand for 'Cleopatra' is overwhelming. Personally, I don't think it will be long before it regains its cost and begins to show a profit."

A Jewel of a House Is Being Created in Palm Springs...

By LEE CHRISTOPHER

It all began with a feather duster.

A very pretty feather duster, mind you, in the gorgeous blues and greens of a peacock's tail, and one never meant for collecting dust.

Or perhaps it was the 135-pound sailfish caught off Acapulco.

Wherever it started and however inspired, the small, cottage-type home of the Henry C. Puckett on 125 Camino Encanto is one of the most enchanting places you've ever seen.

In the slow process of being remodeled and refurnished (the lanai and Polynesian bar are yet to be done), it is a little jewel of a house, perfect to the last hand-wrought drawer-pull, with even the most minute detail the result of careful thinking and long searching for the just-right appointment.

Everything — but EVERY-THING — was designed by the pretty-as-a-picture Lucille Puckett and her imaginative husband, and every piece of furniture, every cabinet, the rugs and drapes, the wall hangings, even the bathroom ceiling was hand-made to their precise instructions — much of it in Europe.

Interior Magic

It does look like a cottage on the outside; but the inside holds a wealth of rich vibrant color, exquisite furniture, unique detailing — and a dozen or so items that could have sprouted only from the Puckett imagination of a man like Hank Puckett.

Here are just a few of the details one is not likely to come across again very soon:

—Four small white spigots on the side of one of the kitchen cabinets labeled "Bourbon," "Scotch," "Rum," and "Vodka," for push-button dispensing of liquid refreshments from an ingenious interior arrangement devised, of course, by Hank.

—Two faucets at the kitchen sink (in addition to the hot and cold-water ones) for ice water and BOILING water — a device repeated at the poolside. ("Why go to the refrigerator, open the door, take out a bottle, take off the cap, etc., etc., when you want a drink of water," says Hank. "And why go to the trouble of boiling water for tea when all you have to do is turn on a faucet. I like things simple.")

—A waterfall tumbling down a huge escarpment of desert rock — with real fire spouting up where the water splashes into a tiny quiet pool.

Roman Luxury

—A Roman Bath at one end of the swimming pool — a wide shallow ledge covered by a few inches of water so that sunbathers may toast one side and soak the other for coolness. And at the other end of the same pool a table sunk into the water with benches all around for breakfasting or lunching in the most delightful comfort.

—Back in the kitchen, a toaster dropped down into the counter top, along with a recessed blender, and cabinets that light up whenever the doors are opened.

—In the Polynesian bar, a huge round table that transforms into a horseshoe bar, the top completely covered with shells, tiny seashells, seaweed, coral, and other bits of marine life, pieces of fishnet, colorful rocks, and other conversation-pieces — the whole encased in a couple of inches of clear Lucite.

Abacus Screen

—A screen-like door leading into the dressing room from the pool which is made from Chinese abacuses. (When they told the girl in a Chinatown shop that they wanted 15 abacuses, she asked, in natural curiosity, "What do you want so many for?" "Why," answered Hank, straight-faced, "it's income-tax time, you know.")

A DEEP PEACOCK BLUE rough-textured fabric upholsters this contoured chair and footstool made in Denmark to the Puckett's design. Unique, too, is the hanging lamp created for them in Norway, the white opaque glass shade covering an inner shade of cut glass. Mrs. Puckett is seen as she relaxes for a moment on one of the deep blue-green divans that corner the living room.

—In the bedroom, hanging lamps made by Lucille from large square baskets filled to overflowing with mixed greenery. And a headboard of tufted white silk-finished vinyl stretching the width of the room.

—A ready-made thunder shower. Honest. At the flick of a switch (and there are more switches to flick in this house than you've ever seen), thunder and lightning roar from the roof, and in a few minutes, a curtain of rain completely encases the lanai.

Music at a Touch

—A system of music throughout the house and pool area unduplicated.

icated anywhere in the world. It was designed and built by Hank after he had been told by electronic experts that it was impossible. From four areas, a touch of a button can bring Latin, Hawaiian, or background music from any of three record players — or it can turn a radio on or off and change stations. It will play an hour, then shut itself off automatically.

—Gold-plated wrought-iron angle braces to hold the ceiling beams in the bedroom.

—Bathroom ceilings that light up completely with no glare and no shadows.

Oh well, you get the idea.

"We've built ourselves into this house," Lucille says with her deep dimples flashing, and the house reveals two definite, artistic, imaginative, and practical characters who appreciate the creature comforts.

"Hank has a tremendous sense of comprehension," his wife says, "and no matter what I would dream up, he could grasp my idea immediately, probably enlarge upon it, and execute it with dispatch."

That Feather Duster

So now we come back to the feather duster. It was just about a year ago, and Hank and Lucille were in the thinking stage of remodeling. Plans were indefinite except for two things: Hank be-

FINDING A SPOT for the 135-pound sailfish she caught in Acapulco started the Henry C. Puckett's on their house re-doing project. Now, leaping against a seascape painted by Mrs. Puckett, the giant fish is a fitting backdrop for their unique swimming pool. Lucille is shown here as she sweeps up some of the debris littering the lanai which, with the Polynesian bar, is yet to be completed. The remodeling and refurnishing has been a year-long program.

...Inspired by a Duster

'HAWAIIAN MODERN' is the way Lucille Puckett describes her enchanting bedroom. The low bed rests against a tufted headboard that reaches from wall to wall; the hanging lamps she made from wicker baskets and filled with greenery. Everything is white, accented by the deep golden rug.

lieved that he had reached an age when he deserved to pamper himself, and Lucille wanted color, color, and more color.

One day, in a small Palm Springs shop, Lucille saw a duster made in a beautiful range of colored feathers running from deep peacock blue to a rich jewel green. "That's it!" she cried, and went in and bought two of them. (They now hang on one wall like a pair of crossed swords.) From then on, everywhere she went, one of those dusters went with her. Today, she can toss one on any piece of furniture in the living room, and it seems to melt into the upholstery.

Made in Denmark

All the living room furniture was made to the Puckett's design in Denmark. There are chairs that can be hinged together to form a completely circular divan, other low couches, and deep contoured chairs, all covered in one of the glowing shades, or combinations thereof, of her magic feather duster. Even the rug, woven abroad to their specifications, throbs from green to blue and back again. And as a subtle, subdued background for this richness of tone are the walls covered in silk rice paper the shade of desert sands.

The bedroom Lucille describes as Hawaiian Modern, and the hanging basket lamps and other flower arrangements do lend a tropical flavor. Bed, wall shutters, headboard, side tables, and chests—all designed by this artistic duo—are white, accented by a golden rug and walls of white silk rice paper—one wall a mural of bamboo painted by Lucille. Here, too, is a tiny corner fireplace that burns on cool quiet evenings.

The kitchen is all-white formica and walnut woods; the lanai and bar will be palm fronds, woven reeds, and comfortable rattan furniture.

It is not a large house, and the rooms are small, but it is big with originality, striking thinking, a real sense of unique beauty, and a downright appreciation of what makes life really livable.

Weekend Wonderland

The Pucketts have an apartment in Los Angeles, and use their house here for weekends and winter living (although this summer has seen both of them here for long periods as they create their striking home.)

Good Starter

Melon cup breakfast combines the first and second courses—fruit and cereal. Halve a well-chilled cantaloupe. Remove seeds. Scoop 5 or 6 melon balls from the center of each half. Fill cavities with puffed rice or puffed wheat and top with melon balls. Serve with sugar and cream.

HIGH SHINE

Tall rubber boots have a glistening polished look for fall. Black, saddle brown, gray, red, and white is the color choice in fascinating knee-high rain boots.

ing home.) Hank buys property, mostly in Los Angeles, builds industrial plants, and then leases his holdings. Lucille was a commercial artist before her marriage two years ago.

"We share so much," she says, her wonderful eyes lighting with happiness and enthusiasm. "Every bit of this house we've done together, but we've also had time for golf and dancing and traveling everywhere." And, in addition, adding to their large collection of quite-mad and zany hats.

That Sailfish

And that brings to mind the sailfish that was almost forgotten.

Lucille brought it in when they were fishing down in Acapulco—a catch that weighed 30 pounds more than she does. Now it is mounted against a life-like three-dimensional mural which she painted—the great fish leaping in the foreground, and down in one corner a tiny boat with each figure, in their clothes and positions, depicted exactly as they were the moment the monster fish struck. It makes an exciting backdrop for their swimming pool.

But then, everything is exciting in the Puckett's house—exciting in its imagination and stimulating in the quiet beauty of its unique perfection.

TV in Review

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—It is Hollywood legend that when Victor Mature was denied membership in a country club which refused to accept performers, he replied: "I'm no actor, and I have 25 pictures to prove it."

This film town is funny and ribald and continually fascinating despite its recent setbacks and new conservatism—but you wouldn't know it if you watch a piece of bland daily fare offered by NBC-TV, entitled "Here's Hollywood."

"Here's Hollywood" is the fan magazine of the air, and about as penetrating. The main reason for this is host Jack Linkletter, a nice young man who unfortunately has no other qualifications as an interviewer, as he demonstrated again Tuesday with John Wayne.

Press Agent's Delight Linkletter is a press agent's delight, rarely probing his wealth of material to meaningful depths. He accepts the image and forgets the person. One suspects that he is partially trapped as a prober because, as the son of Art Linkletter, he grew up among the celebrities he must now do business with.

What the show needs to be a winner—which it could be—is a mature, seasoned hand rather than merely a saleable last name.

Tuesday, like a fan magazine's come-on headline, Linkletter told us of Wayne's "strong opinions on life, women and politics." And like a teaser story, he barely touched on these at all—not out of deliberate shrewdness, it appeared, but merely by shying away.

Instead, we got countless plugs from Linkletter for Wayne's new jungle picture, the name of which I forget. Linkletter tried to make the movie sound like a dangerous venture; and Wayne said, now, it wasn't. Linkletter said Wayne's films had messages; and Wayne said, no, they didn't—but finally helped his interviewer save a little face. Our host asked such questions as, "What was the most exciting part of the picture for you?" He never progressed beyond this level—yet there in front of him he had one of the great stars of all time, a man who is a wonderful interview, and who does indeed have strong opinions about politics and patriotism and his critics and the perpetuation of his image, not to mention women.

Angels Get Shutout By K.C., 6-0

Defeat Drops Club to Third In AL Derby

WASHINGTON (UP) — The Los Angeles Angels now in third place in the American League pennant race, had the day off today after splitting a two-game series with the Kansas City Athletics.

The Angels arrived here to open a three-game stand with the Senators in hopes of regaining a more favorable position in the crowded league standings.

They were shoved into third place Wednesday night at Kansas City when the Athletics' little Orlando Pena handed them a 6-0 defeat on a three-hit shutout. The Angels had won the opener of the series, 10-5.

Pena struck out six and yielded only a single walk in his first major league shutout of the season, ending a string of nine consecutive losses by his club to Los Angeles.

The Angels' three hits came in the first, third and eighth frames. Kansas City picked up solo runs off Angel starter Bo Belinsky in the fourth and fifth and pushed across two runs in both the seventh and eighth. Bobby De Greco led the Athletics' offense with run-scoring singles in the fifth and seventh.

MANY $&*%& WORDS DURING GAME

L.A. Dodgers Nip Cincy In 13 Inning Tilt, 2-1

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—To call the balk or not to call the balk. Not only is that the question, it's also the argument.

The little word caused two heated discussions Wednesday night that saw four players ejected in the Cincinnati-Los Angeles game, which the Dodgers won, 2-1, on John Roseboro's bases-loaded single in the bottom of the 13th inning.

Dodgers manager Walt Alston, who has a reputation as one of baseball's quieter souls, was ejected during the sixth inning when he demanded a balk be called on Cincinnati pitcher Joey Jay. Dodger pitcher Johnny Podres was tossed out several minutes later for continuing the argument from the dugout.

Then Cincinnati pilot Fred Hutchinson and half the team raced to encircle umpire Kenny Burkhardt after the latter enforced the balk rule on Jay in the 12th inning. Battering helmets and towels came flying out of the Reds dugout. But they were heaved in as Hutchinson and coach Pete Whisenant were heaved out.

3-Inning No-Hitter
"That was the most deliberate violation of the rule I've ever seen," said Alston after the hectic game. "The only thing I'm asking is for something that's in the book. And I'm asking the umpires to enforce it."

Hutchinson, his defending National League champions now 6 1/2 games behind Los Angeles after dropping the first two games of the series, was as vehement in denying that Jay balked.

"If they're going to call this balk rule," he added, "I wish they would call it with consistency. And not just against us." What caused all the trouble was Jay's unusual jerky style of pitching that made him appear something like a child lifting a rusty pump handle. It was effective too. The burly pitcher had a no-hitter going for 3-13 innings, until Willie Davis singled.

O'Toole and Williams
Then Jay had a one-hitter going with two outs in the Dodgers half of the ninth. But Frank Howard singled, and Duke Snider tripled to score Larry Burroughs—who was running for Howard—with the game-tying run as the 49,603 fans roared.

Cincy slugger Frank Robinson, who got thrown out at the plate by Willie Davis in the top of the 13th after Gordon Coleman singled to center, said Alston's protests are "ruining baseball."

The argument could continue tonight when the clubs close out their series: Jim O'Toole (13-13) was due to pitch for the Reds and Stan Williams (12-8) for the Dodgers.

Ed Roebuck, third Los Angeles pitcher, got the win Wednesday night and ran his record to a 9-0. The bases were loaded with one out when Roseboro came up in the 13th. Tommy Davis, who had singled, was on third, Lee Walls who had blooped a pinch double on second, and Duke Snider who was intentionally walked was on first.

Roseboro lined a long shot to center which Vada Pinson could have caught. Instead he tried to bluff Tommy Davis into trying to score without tagging. When Pinson saw that wouldn't work, he let the ball bounce for the game-winning hit.

Cincy had scored its lone run in the sixth when Don Blasingame doubled and scored on Pinson's single.

Tom Bradley Enters Golf Tournament at Riverside

Tom Bradley, Palm Springs' fine young golfer and all-around athletic for the high school Indians, will tee off Saturday joining a strong field of 160 players in the opening round of the Riverside Amateur Golf Tournament being played at the Jurupa Hills Country Club.

The Labor Day weekend tourney has three handicap flights besides the championship flight. The golfers will play in groups of threes with the first threesome due to tee off at 7:30 a.m., followed by a trio every seven minutes with the last group slated to go at 1:34 in the afternoon.

Young Bradley is grouped with M. Hunter and L. Hadden and scheduled to tee off at 10:53 a.m. for the first round of the weekend tourney.

H.S. Pigskin Players Must Present Forms

Boys planning to participate in football at Palm Springs High School this year must pick up their physician's statement and parent's consent forms at the high school office, assistant Wayland Reynolds announced today. He added that boys are expected to do so prior to Labor Day. Uniforms will not be issued until medical examinations are completed, he said. There will be a forthcoming announcement as to the date and time for the issuance of football uniforms and equipment.

The local golfer was a member of the Palm Springs High School golf team which won the Desert Valley League championship in its first year of competition.

During the summer in local golf tournaments staged in the resort desert area, the promising golfer has scored well among the lower handicap golfers and should fare quite well in the strong field of golfers entered in the Riverside Country Amateur Golf Tourney over the weekend.

Family Duo Team Enter Boat Race

SALTON CITY — Some drivers will go to any length, or distance, to pursue their boat racing hobby.

Take the father and son act of the Richard Stephens, senior and junior, these Fort Lauderdale, Fla., drivers were the first out-of-state entrants for the second annual Salton City 500 mile Boat Race, Nov. 4-11.

Of course, there's some incentive. First place overall is worth $5,000 from the total purse of $5,000. Dick Stephan Jr., won the 250 mile Gold Coast Marathon in Miami in July. His father, the Massachusetts tonyoon, raced boats in Massachusetts before moving into the Florida race scene.

By the time the Stephens get back home from California, their boat, Gallipoli Danduff II, will have been trailed some 6,000 miles.
